BRIDGE PARTIES, BENEFIT AND PURELY SOCIAL, THRONG THE WEEK; U. N. M. PROM IS BRILLIANT; MISS LESTER IS TO WED ON MAY TENTH

array of entertainments as the glorious spring days aft-er Easter inspired we almost ** er Easter inspired we almost anticipated a slump in affairs for the past week. No so, however.

There were two large bridge parties, the D. A. R. benefit bridge, and any number of smaller affairs.

Cards are out for several parties of prominence during the coming week.

And speaking of parties in gen-

And speaking of parties in general leads us to the matter of chronicling the same. We quote from the society editorial of a large southern paper which warns ble at the Elks' club on next Sathostesses who evade the social col-umns that misunderstandings about small affairs are more likely to Thirty-five tables have already occur when an account is kept out l friends would know then that you had only a few in and would understand perfectly. Otherwise they think you had a big affair to which they were not invited, when really it was just one of the playing there will be vocal numbers by Miss Grace Stortz, accompanied by Mrs. Lewis B. Thompson, and by George Geake, Mrs. It was just one of the playing there will be vocal numbers by Mrs. Lewis B. Thompson, and by George Geake, Mrs. It was just one of the playing there will be vocal numbers by Mrs. Lewis B. Thompson, and by George Geake, Mrs. they were not invited, when really it was just one of these little in-formal parties." We simply pass this on as being our idea exactly.

MISS LESTER WILL BE

gagement was announced several purpose,

Plans have been made for a late afternoon ceremony at the home of the bride at Fourth and Silver ave-march.

Mr. Huddleston is expected back this week from New York, where he was called on business nearly two months ago. The young cou-ple expect to spend a honeymoon of several weeks in the mountains of New Mexico before they go east for the winter. They will make their home at Felham, N. Y.

The bride-elect is a beautiful girl of gracious manner and considerable musical talent. She was born musical talent. She was born and brought up in Albuquerque, nttended finishing school in the east and pursued advanced violin studies on the Pacific coast. She has always been one of the most attractive young persons in the local society set.

MRS, FAW ENTERTAINS AT

se engagement to Mrs. Faw's Howell, was announced last week.

The club building was beautifully arranged for the party with a color scheme of gold and red carried out in figured cretome tables.

Jane Matilda Raymond Jackie and His Pony.
Jimmie and Robert Allen Daisies—Mary Moulton and Lubanked with ferns bubbled in the scenter of the room. The tally cards as well as the invitations to the affair were arristically hand-decorated with a bow knot and the initials of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Faw was assisted in enter-talling to the state of the property of t ble covers and shaded lamps which harmonized. An electric fountain banked with ferns bubbled in the luncheon which carried out the color scheme was served, Misses Dorothy and Eleanor Cameron. Williams, Dorothy man, Viola Herkenhoff and Mary Popejoy assisting.

The guests were Meadames E D. Sisk, Arthur Sisk and house
guest, W. G. Hope, Lester Cooper, H. B. Hening, Hockenhull, E. C.
Reid, Thomas Hughes, Guy Rogers,
A. D. Ogle, H. M. Bowers
de Oden, R. Fred Pettif, L. G.
Gle, T. J. Mabry, W. P. McDowlell, E. T. J. Mabry, W. P. McDowlell, R. H. Kirk, George Geake, E.
E. Royer, J. F. Altmix, W. B.
E. Royer, J. F. Altmix, W. B.
demonstrations on this of demonstrations of the demonstratio Charles Sutton, L. B. Mitchell, C. H. Spitzmesser, L. A. McRae, A. W. Hayden, F. L. Schneider, Van Devanter, Robert Rockwood, Walter Simpson, D. J. Rankin, Petty, and house guest, E. C. Butler, R. And house gue harles Sutton, L. B. Mitchell, C. John W. Wilson, Halph Hernan-dez, T. G. Winfrey, Fred Canfield, H. L. Brehmer, H. H. Ackerson, Cheney, Gardner, Joseph Regensburger, W. T. McCreight, Delaney, S. E. Newcomer, William Clayton, Laura Werner, D. E. Wilson, and L. C. Bennett; Misses Marie Ball-A. C. Bennett; Misses Marie Balling, Lorena Wells, Stella Duran, Angela Sanchez, Stella Farrell, Wenonah Dixon, Clyda Wilson, Persis Bryce, Jeffie Short, Grace Strtz, Irma Lix, Vivian Halthusen, Dorothy McAllister, Beatrice Hill, Alice Lewis, Carol Wilson, Priscilla Newcomer, Irene Fee, Julia McGuire, Rosaile Furrie, Irone Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Katherine Burke, Lulu Kendrick, Irma Wolkswilling, Sands Wilma Shelton, Walling Sands Wilma Shelton, Walling Sands Wilma Shelton, Walling Sands Wilma Shelton, Walling Sands Willing Sands Wilma Shelton, Walling Sands Walling Sands

MRS, TWOGOOD GIVES A SONQUIL BRIDGE.
A pretty afternoon bridge party at which a profusion of jonquils added to the festive atmosphere ons given by Mrs. Charles E. Two-cod at her home, 1116 North Sec-nd street, on Thursday afternoon. x tables of bridge were played uring the afternoon with the sual late tea guests.

during the afternoon with the usual late tea guests.

Mrs. Twogood's guests were Mrs. James Doolittle, Mrs. Frank Shufflebarger, Mrs. B. L. Wiles, Mrs. C. C. Davis, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. C. Davis, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. J. H. Pegue, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Song and Dance. Mary Sadie Normal, Mrs. George Ruoff, Mrs. J. H. Pegue, Mrs. Ed Nunlist, Mrs. W. H. B. Hicks, Mrs. Howard Blair, Mrs. Eva Hyre, Mrs. Frank Stortz, Mrs. W. B. Hicks, Mrs. Howard Blair, Mrs. Eva Hyre, Mrs. Frank Stortz, Mrs. William Bryce, Mrs. Emil Otto. Mrs. Harry Braun, Mrs. John Munn, Mrs. S. T. Vann, Mrs. J. H. Sunfflebarger, Mrs. Joseph Regensburger, and Mrs. B. E. Shuitz The hostess was assisted at tea time by Miss Bertha Lee Paine, Mrs. Giff Hayden, Mrs. Green in different jurisdictions being represented. Many out of town visting Margery Shuitz, Miss Elization. The Mrs. Clip had a minteresting meeting Monday afternoon. The School Girl's Sense of Honor." The Miss Helen Shartzer School Girl's Sense of Honor." The School Girl's Sense of Honor

JEW NEAR EAST RELIEF

BENEFIT SATURDAY.

Devotees of 'cards. needlework and just conversation will assem
Mr. and Mrs. T Soelen of Santa Fe the week-end in the Van Soelen's parents Mrs. Clark M. Carr.

offairs are more likely to the tables have already then an account is kept out been engaged for cards and more paper. Says this society will be available on the afternoon

"Every time you have a few friends together at your home don't think you can hide it. If an account appeared in these columns you would probably be saved the very criticism you fear, for your friends would know then that you have a few young word and the color of the party.

A musical program will be given during the afternoon by Miss During the Cameron and David Marcus, young violinists. During the reshment hour at the close of the playing there will be vocal numbers by Miss Grace Stortz, accompliance of the party.

The proceeds of the party will be contributed to a nation-wide ampaign for money for the starving children of the Near East and ussia. This has been one of most popular philanthropies of Russia. The wedding date for Miss Lorna Lester, daughter of Mrs. Felix
Lester, and Roderick Purser Huddleston of New York, whose en-

FORTNIGHTLY BANQUET

TUESDAY EVENING.
The annual banquet and instal-lation of officers of the Fortnightbue in the presence of members of the family. Miss Lester will be attended by Miss Esther Howden and by Miss Florence Weiller as maids of honor. Miss Grace Stortz will sing "Until" and Miss Louise Lowber will play the wedding march.

Mr. Handler of members of the Fortnight in Music club will be held on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Woman's club building. The afair will be formal. Maurice Klein will act as toastmaster after the dinner. The new officers to be installed are Mrs. Elizabeth Brad-ford. ford, president; Miss Louise M. Nichols, first vice president; Mrs. W. P. McDowell, second vice president; Mrs. R. C. Bailey, recording scaretary; Mrs. Inez Westlake, corresponding secretary, and J. G.

"RED RIDING HOOD" TO COME ON MAY 5.

A second performance of the children's operetta, "Little Red Riding Hood," presented first in presented first in February by the children of St. John's Sunday school and Mrs. Elizabeth Bradford, will be given on the evening of May 5 at the high school auditorium.

The cast of characters follows:
Red Riding Hood. Douglas Geake Her Grandmother .....Olive Harden

Mrs. D. W. Faw entertained deHightfully yesterday afternoon at the Country club at a big bridge party in honor of Miss Alice Gould, whose engagement to Mrs. Faw.

Mrs. D. W. Faw entertained deWoodman ... Langdon Leonard Wolf ... Buster Harden Rose ... Mary Sadie Norment Butterfly ... Katherine New Son Honor of Mrs. Faw. Ruttercup ..... Sibyl McLandress decorated with a bow knot and the initials of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Faw was assisted in entertaining by Miss Gould, Mrs. Ellen Gould and Mrs. Charles E. Carey After the games a two-course luncheon which carried out the luncheon which carried out the luncheon which same and luncheon which carried out the luncheon which carried out the luncheon which same luncheon

Sibyl McLandress, Metilda Ray-mond, Willa Salter, Myron Sabio, George Page Valliant, James Allen, Robert Allen, Jack Henling, James Milne, John Strong, Garnett Miller Planist—Mrs. George Everitt Director — Mrs. Elizabeth A

That fraternal carnival known as a Shrine coremonial recurring last Monday meant a holiday for all local fez wearers and their families. While there was no street demonstrations on this occasion, the fun at the Masonic temple was at the evening the formal ball, exclusively for Shriners, was given at the temple. Full dress, the tasseled fex, bright decorations, excellent music and a cabaret supper made this affair quite up to the standard of the usual Shriners' entortainment.

gracious and willing service ren-dered the guests, made the dinner hour one that will be a pleasant cia gave an interesting talk. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Van Soelen of Santa Fe are spending the week-end in the city with Mrs. Van Soelen's parents, Captain and Mrs. Clark M. Carr.

ested. The Hl-A club had a business meeting Wednesday and made plans for the annual banquet. The story hour Tuesday was interesting as usual. The little girls are busy making character dolls.

Bouffant Skirts With

on than that she retain the basqudress in its entrancingly youthful interpretation and add a few distinctly new touches to set it definitely apart from its predecessors? Surely one would not consider that it be laid aside as long as its development contains any such de-lightful possibilities as this model of brown taffeta with collar and overskirt sections of organdie in a slightly lighter tone. Two groups of pin tucks arranged in horizontal band effect in the underskirt combine with the crispness of taffeta and organdle to emphasize the bouffant note in the skirt. Indi-suggestion, with long fringe dron-ping from draped-up fabrics—en-chantingly graceful! One stunning wrap of black veldyne (which is its general description—navy blue taffeta, with a gathered skirt, elbow sleeves and shallow, rounded decolletage.

A fetching dress-up sport costume has a frock of white canton crepe, the skirt in pleated panels and the sleeves wide and loosely flowing. Over this white frock goes a sleeveless jacket of green veldyne stitched elaborately in white. The white sleeves of the frock have cuffs of the green material, and on these cuffs and on the lower froat corners of the jacket are clusters of bright col-blue and white candles on blue tri-angles were very pretty. After a two-course dinner there were toasts by the different clubs and some good music. some good music.

Adelia Elder acted as toastmis-

Adelia Elder acted as toastmis-tress and Margaret Cox. Ruth Caldwell and Alberta Smith gave splendid talks on the three sides of the triangle—body, mind and spirit. Isabell Cunningham gave a toast "to the Girl Reserve," Hel-en Kay gave an enthysicatic tellen Kay gave an enthusiastic talk en Kay gave an enthuslastic talk on "A Girls' Camp," and Elizabett Fee gave a toast "To Our Mothers."
The guests were Adelia Elder, Johnny Johnson, Helen Haynes, Margaret Simonson, Mary Brown, Grace Ryan, Evelyn Brosey, Louise Snyder, Frances Page, Ethel Burger, Mary Schults, Mildred Brooks, Helen Kay, Alberta Smith, Ruth Kay, Thelma Stnart, Midred Lighton, Elnore Sadier, Albura Koury, Mary Rodrique, Josefa Armijo, Jennebel Cunningham, Ruth Adams, Mary Weir, Elsie Russell.

dered the guests, mada the dinner hour one that will be a pleasant memory.

After the dinner an interesting After the dinner an interesting brogram was given as fellows:

Song, "The Star Spangled Banner". Audience Prayer Rev. H. S. Davidson Tenor Solo John Gould Address R. A. Sleyster French's Quartet. Reading Miss Pansy Hicks Talk on the Home Mrs. W. H. James Violin Solo J. Capron Mrs. The Jap club had an interesting meeting Monday afternoon. The

Novel Basque Effects her bridge club of one table at uncheon before the regular game at her home on Thursday. Mrs. L. C. Bennett, Mrs. H. L. Brehmer and Mrs. Henry G. Coors, Jr., were

An automobile party composed of Dean and Mrs. W. H. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blakemore, Mrs. E. R. Edgar, Mrs. Tompkins, Mrs. Emily F. LaBelle, Miss Adele Holmquist, Dean Benjamin Roor and Joseph R. Wilson drove to Acoma and return on Wednesday.

Mrs. Louis lifeld gave a beautifully appointed bridge party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Vinal of Worcester, Mass, who has been the house guest of Mrs. David Spence Hill. Spring flowers were used in decorations Three tables of bridge were played and a number of guests came in

Miss Lydia Friede entertained a few of her friends last Friday eve-ning at her home. Games and dancing were the program for the evening, after which light refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Louise Snyder Louise Dozier, Gwendolyn Grigsby, Adelia Elder, Florence Reynolds, Lydia Friede, and Messrs. Wendali Doty, George Maples, Webster Bur-James Elder and Roscoe

Mrs. Morton D. Walker and Mrs. on on Tuesday afternoon from

The fifth birthday of little Marian Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, was celebrated with a children's Easter party last week.

Mrs. B. B. Hanger entertained at a sewing party on Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Tillio Reger of Laramie, Wyo., and her sister, Mrs. W. C. Weigel of Omaha, Neb., who are her house guests. The visitors will return to their homes on Tuesday.

bouffant note in the skirt. Indicating each deep scallop of the overskirts are oval reserved. Miss Marjorie Hatch, small daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Hatch, calchrated her seventh birthday forcam volored Val. The decidedly hat the decidedly hat the skirt of white. This bring wraps have a Spanish suggestion, with long fringe drop.

Miss Marjorie Hatch, small original market of Mrs. Evelyn Hatch, strong or of Mrs. Evelyn Hatch, strong or of Mrs. Evelyn Hatch, strong or original satin trimmed with silver. Miss Dorothy Cameron wore a constitution of the decidedly by a lively party at her home on the seventh birthday for the seventh birthday for the seventh birthday for the power of Mrs. Evelyn Hatch, strong or original california to the seventh birthday for the seventh birt wrap of black veldyne (which is far and away the smartest wrap material of the season), has a border of black silk fringe 20 inches deep. One side of the wrap laps across to the left shoulder and there is a large choker collar that swathes the threat.

The taffeta dance frocks are lovely in color, and have more coquetry of line than the limp and graceful beaded models. Debutantes adore gay little taffeta dance frocks, and, indeed, they are as becoming to youth as the stately beaded gowns are to more mature.

J. Mabry, celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary Thursday of irriday anniversary Thursda wearers. A most fetching taffeta ing the youngsters. The following dinner frock is demure enough in children were guests: Barbara and its general description—navy blue Linden Brown, Reba June Metstaffeta, with a gathered skirt, el-jacket are clusters of bright colored fruit made of velvet.

O — Staged by high school pupils of St.

Mary's school on May 10. The story in three acts is replete with the policy of the editor.

Following is the personnel of the cast, coached by Mrs. Strumquist:

Frank Bartley, editor of the "Free Lance"—Edward Rowe.

Joseph Sawtelle, Pineville's leading merchant—Jack McFarland.

Jim Holman, a star reporter—

Tom McCaffrey,

Julia Langford, society editor—

Julia Langford, society editor-Frances Joy. Schultz, a pressman — Richard Buckley.

Josh Larapee, a delinquent sub-scriber-Albert Wardwell.
John Dawson, state labor inspecor-John Dolzadelli Oliver Buck, a lawyer-Mario

Mr. Bolivar, news service sales-nan—James Heaney. Birdie Bacon, a would-be prima donna—(Not assigned).

Bessie Sawtelle, daughter of wealthy merchant—(Not yet de-

Emily Flaxon, clerk in Sawtelle's store—Marjorie Garcia, Mrs. Pettigrew, village gossip— Lena Dolzadelli.

"I FINALLY HAD TO HAVE IT TAKEN"

Thanks to "Mother and he Girls" many a man has been urged to have nis photograph made.

DO IT NOW THE MILNERS Walton Studio

3231/2 West Central Phone 923

Friday was the big night of the Mr. and Mrs. C. T. French, Mr. and university seal in gold and swinging cherry colored slik cords. Refreshments of individual fruit mold ices, coffee, mints and almonds were served at 11 o'clock by the sophomore class girls dressed as French waitresses.

Bright and varied were the dancing frocks worn by the co-eds at the prom. Miss Dykes, who led in the grand march, wore a beautiful dress of robin's egg blue brocade with a corsage bouquet of pink rosebuds and silver slippers. Miss Blanche Guley octavia Johnson E. Mosher, K. McDowell, O. Ozuna, T. Perez, Mary Sands, Dorothy Stephenson, Irene Wicklund, Clyda Wilson, Ruth Zimmerman, Estelle Weisenbach, Wilma snywer, Messrs, R. J. Albers, C. Caldwell, T. V. Calkins, R. Ferch, R. Gould, E. Lighton, N. D. Mayne, P. Mozely, E. Ogg, F. Neher, G. White, R. Hopewell, and J. Sharp, The juniors who were hosts at Little Winifred Katherine Ma-Hening, Colonel and Mrs. H. B. liet Fleischer, Charles Culpepper Hening, Colonel and Mrs. G. E. William Roy, John Giorni, William J. Mabry, celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary Thursday of Simms Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mind-birthday anniversary Thursday of Iln. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strong.

UNIVERSITY SET PRESENT AT ANNUAL JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM AT ELKS' CLUB FRIDAY NIGHT

taffeta which contrasted effective-ly with her dark hair. Miss Helen MacArthur were a pretty flounced president: M. Stinnett, vice presitaffeta of Jade green, Miss Octavia dent; Mrs. Popejoy, secretary and Johnson were a basque dress of treasurer; Miss Leona Sherwood, orchid satin trimmed with silver, representative; Misses Dorothy of the graduating class.

The prom was a pretty affair with the frivolous young things flashing about and gliding over the shining floor in colorful frocks, and black evening dress. The big ball room was decorated with potted palms which screened the orchestra and with baskets of flowers which were placed in the wall panels.

The guests were greeted by a receiving line as they entered the ball room before the grand march began soon after 8 o'clock. Dean and Mrs. L. B. Mitchell, Mrs. David Spence Hill, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Reidy, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark, Mrs. and Mrs. C. B. Heider, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Rockwood, Miss Katherine score and Mrs. L. B. Witchell, Mrs. and Mrs. R. S. Rockwood, Miss Katherine score Huffine stood in the line. The latter couple, the president of the junior class and his lady, led the grand march.

The dance programs were encased in beautiful card case favors of grey suede studded with the university seal in gold and swinging cherry colored slik cords. Refreshments of Individual fruit.

Mars. Rajh Hernandez, Mr. and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. C. E. Hodgin, Miss of the afternoon's game. Mrs. J. Willing cherry colored slik cords. Refreshments of Individual fruit.

Members of the senior class who were guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Rappert and marge with the faculty: Governor and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. C. E. Hodgin, Miss of the afternoon's game. Mrs. J. Willing cherry colored slik cords. Refreshments of the senior class who were guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Rappert and Mrs. Rappert

WEDDINGS.

Armijo-De Vargas. Mrs. Juanita Abeyta de Vargas and Alberto R. Armijo were mar-ried Monday, April 24, at 11 o'clock a. m., at the Sacred Heart church. Rev. J. N. Cordova celebrated the nuptial mass. The bridesmaid was nuptial mass. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Alejandro A. Sandoval, and the best man was Eugenio Baca, Friday was the big night of the tMr. and Mrs. C. T. French, Mr. and the university upperclassmen when the crowning social event of the year the junior prom, was given at the Elks' club honoring the members of the graduating class,

The prom was a pretty affair with the frivolous young things the faculty: Governor and Mrs. M. A. Sandoval, the bridesmaid, intended the faculty: Governor and Mrs. M. A. Sandoval, the bridesmaid, intended the faculty: Governor and Mrs. M. C. Mechem, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan percentage of the wedding dispersion of the wedding party to the Alvarado hotel to a wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the wedding party to the Alvarado hotel to a wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the wedding party to the Alvarado hotel to a wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the best man was Eugenio Baca. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of A. R. Armijo, 712 South Fourth Street, for the members of the graduating class, and Mrs. Mrs. A. A. Sandoval, the bridesmaid, invited the wedding party to the Alvarado hotel to a wedding dispersion of the best man was Eugenio Baca. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of A. R. Armijo, 712 South Fourth Street, for the members of the graduating class, and the faculty of the wedding party. Mrs. A. A. Sandoval, the bridesmaid, invited the wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the wedding dispersion of the best man was Eugenio Baca. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of A. R. Armijo, 712 South Fourth South Fourt home of Mrs. George K. Angle on North Thirteenth street. A report of the benefit card party was made

MRS. HALL AND MRS. NOHL
AT HOME THURSDAY.
Cards have been issued to a reception to be given by Mrs. Frederick Nohl and Mrs. J. Wilfred Hall on Thursday, May 4, from three to six at the home of Mrs. Nohl at 1206 West Central avenue.

JARLEY'S WAX WORKS, P. T. A. BENEFIT.

The Parnt-teachers' association North Fourth street school is preparing to give Madame Jarley's Wax Works, a famous old-time entertainment, on the evening of May 5 at the school house to raise May 5 at the school house to raise money for the work of the asso-ciation. Miss Murphy and her pu-pils will assist in the program. Mrs. William Swayne will act as Madame Jarley and the wax figures will be as follows:

Group I.—The Man All Tattered and Torn, R. M. Hall; The Maiden All: Forlorn, Mrs. R. M. Hall; Christopher Columbus, Gilbert Sites, Lady McBeth, Mrs. A. A. Woodworth; William Tell, Paul Mozley. Group II—Medusa, Mrs Wm. Menaul; The Ruffian, Fred Page;

Menaul; The Rufflan, Fred Page;
The Smiler, Mrs. C. M. Foraker;
Cinderella, Mrs. C. A. Mozley,
Uncle Tom, W. R. Isbell.
Group III—Simple Simon, Walter Pomerank; The Spoiled Child,
Mrs. J. H. Walker; Violante, Aliqe
(Continued on Next Page.)

TWENTY YEARS AGO

young wife, who have been the guests of Mrs. Fred Fisher and Mrs. A. Harsch for several weeks, left for Philadelphia on Monday Mr. Otter is a millionaire manu

In Albuquerque Society.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Flourney was the the-Mrs. M. W. Flournoy was the the-ater of a charmingly appointed dinner at 5 o'clock yesterday after-noon. The affair was given in honor of Messrs. and Mesdames J. A. and Chester E. Coram and Miss McCaffrey of Boston. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Newhall, Miss Nell Flournoy, Dr. E. J. Alger, and Mrs. William Dr. E. J. Alger, and Mrs. William Spencer of Bland. at the Masonic temple when they The alumni of the university are attended the benefit party of the beginning to think of their annual reunion and banquet. The offi-cers are Louis Brooks, president: cers are Louis Brooks, president: Miss Flora Vann, vice president: Miss Nellie Brewer, secretary-Miss Nellie Brewer, secretary treasurer; Miss Marion McDonald corresponding secretary; Mis Freda Barth, chairman of execu-tive committee. The class craft tive committee. The class orator is Miss Edith Niles.

At St. John's rectory Miss Julia Renison last night entertained a gay party of young friends. There were merry games, fine music and delicious refreshments.

Mrs. A. W. Yanow, accompanied by her sister, Miss Mindlin, left last night for El Paso.

The party of wealthy and cultured easterners visiting in the city were driven about the city on one of Clifford's rigs yesterday and were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Neill B. Field.

The ballad concert given at the Congregational church on Friday night was thoroughly enjoyed. The prime favorite, "Ben Bolt," was sweetly sung by Miss Mable Fitch.

sweetly sung by Miss Mable Fitch, who effectively responded to a hearty encore with the ever welcome "Annie Laurie." Other features of the program were the lovely song. "Sweet and Low." as a quartet by Messrs. Bell and Stone, Miss Fitch and Mrs. E. L. Washburn, and a brilliant piane duet of Beethoven by Misses Lodge and Everitt. and Everitt.

--From the Journal-Democrat,
April, 1902.

Porcelain blue is the new color for linens. Practical and charm-ing little skirt and jacket suits for warm days are of porcelain blue linen. The jacket is straight and linen. The jacket is straight and loose and opens to show a dainty blouse. Skirt and jacket of blue linen are trimmed with white embroidered scallops

LE ROY YOTT

Violinist—Teacher Studio: Gem Hotel 215½ West Central Avenue Phones 1564-J. 2412-R2.

Strikingly Styled Summer Frocks

Underwear

Fresh, light, cool underwear is one of the first things you think of when warmer weather approaches. You will find just your size, your style and your weight at Kistler, Collister Co.'s.

For Women-

Crepe de Chine Nightgowns in ping, featured at ..... $5.69

32-Inch Pongee

An imported fabric of exceptional quality. Appropriate for many uses, such as women's

ALL WOOL TWEED A splendid 54 inch all wool tweed, suitable for capes and skirts at yard.....$1.95

Art Needlework Dept.

Things new and interesting are Inings new and interesting are constantly added to these already diversified lines. Among the latest arrivals are attractive new models in Children's Dresses, ready made and stamped with pretty embroidery designs. Some new Test Towels. ed with pretty embroidery de-signs. Some new Tea Towels and Pillow Cases are stamped for applique work and outline stitch. A variety of patterns for the selection.

Featuring a collection of figured frocks of a midsummer variety-crisp, trim frocks or soft, clinging frocks-frocks as refreshing as a June day. There are many delectable styles whose exhilarating qualities depend upon their simplicity, and there are frocks of a decidedly formal nature for festivals which tend toward the formal.

Imported Voiles Hand Blocked Voiles Silk Crede de Chine Figured and Striped Crepes

Frocks in straight line effects, in basque modes, and in other new Parisian styles; also a number designed expressly for large women. Although modestly priced there isn't a single frock referred to today which lacks the Kistler, Collister & Co. quality.

Lace Collars, Imported Lace Collars Two Special Lots at 75c and $1.25

Tweed Suits

Dashing models of the character and value required for all purposes, in the new spring tweeds;

Two Beautiful

Silk Crepes

For Dresses

No doubt you've noticed how many attractive spring frocks are fashioned from these slender, gracefully hanging silk crepes:

Crepe de Chine

Canton Crepe

Buy the Gordon Hose-"Hard to Wear Out"

THE GROWING STORE' Mittler, Collistery